

DEALED SOCIETY NOTE.

Col.

Della Ware "took the cake" at Methodist festival on Tuesday evening by the handsome vote of 236.

At the same time she was awarded the handsomest young lady in silence.

Alfred has returned from St.

bringing with him one of that best belles as a joint partner, to the happy couple.

Preparations are being made young folks for the grand picnic in the Phoenix park on the 12th.

Body is invited.

Martin, the late firm of Mar-

Hans, has returned from his trip and is registered at the Ward.

Saw is very sick at Weather-field.

Charley Shaw, took in yesterday evening to see him;

Sam Walker, of the firm of Walker & Co., returned home from Hot Springs looking very improved.

Robert, who has been day at the noted Rendebrook for some time, was made happy ago by the presence of his on the morning train. He's from Huntsville, Texas, make Colorado their future

Franklin's smiling face is seen on the streets.

J. Rogers, who has been pasthe Presbyterian church in this is the location of the town, for a few days for Sherman goes to fill a teacher's place in college.

R. Jeffries, a well-known of this city, will leave to-morrow.

Mr. Jeffries goes to family, who are in that state,

Sweetwater is in the city, the well-known bartender at should not show up any

How is that?"

after journeying in old several months, has returned and will make this city home.

John Clever was numbered among the outgoing passengers from yesterday.

Pilot Point.

Mrs. Geo. Cranston of spent several days the past visiting, and were the

Robert Kendall and wife, of Weston, Collin county,

Monday and purchased a on Sherman street, have immediately.

Pilot Point seminary on Monday with residence. Among others journeyed are Miss Mattie

Edna Spruill of Collin

McEwen, the accompanying the art department of the military arrived last Mississippi where she has vacation.

J. Glasscock returned from a long protracted visit

From his general ap-trip was an agreeable institute for Denton coun-organized on Saturday,

26th, at the Pilot Point and social.

Mr. representing Bateman Bros.

and grocery merchants families have moved in and the past week.

services to-day at the Cumterister church by Rev.

Dr. J. T. Johnson

Church and Eld. J. B.

Baptist church.

In a promising and handson, has taken a position ware house of Flake &

Lindale, formerly of this of Lewisville, was in selling groceries for Waggers of Dallas, a village on the Trinity river.

Wills Point.

Leah Dickard, Mollie Rogally Williams' last week bid a kind adieu for several they will be in Dallas the Dallas Female college, days are all desirous of ob-edication, and we will hope every enjoyable time in the cal concert has been post-week on account of the occupied the three nights visited us on the 7th inst., its arrival the people made it was no good, but it was found to be qualities.

incident occurred on last at the opera-house over

"A Celebrated Case,"

time passed around as well as the

was the most magnificent in Wills Point. The combination were the per-

Homan left the city on the Sherman, where she join the female college

Miss Jessie will make her study and with the knowledge she already selected some fine selecrendered by her on her re-

Rogers left the city on attend the Dallas Female

Dealet.

Frances, who has been and relatives in Al-issippi, has returned, the life of society here, welcome her back,

and Mason have rea short visit to Fort and lady have returned bridal trip. Bob's smile from ear to ear.

spending in high life at De-announced in a week or meeting carried on of our Methodist still going on, and much will follow.

Malick is in the city completing her arrangements in regard

The Plaza of Dallas is visited in our midst.

Miss Annie is on our streets yesterday.

Mr. Clark, late of Reed, Clark & Saunders. Mr. Clark left for Mexico a week or so ago, and it is hinted a pair of bright eyes in the northern part of our city can tell why he returned so quickly.

Dealet has twelve little girls to every little boy, and twelve big boys to every one big girl. And the big boys want the things changed.

Col. Dick Winn of Fort Worth is in the city assisting in the prosecution of N. C. Cargill and R. M. Bevelle, who are charged with false imprisoning H. C. Carter.

HENDERSON.

Captain A. M. DeJarnette and family left last week for Tyler, where Mr. DeJarnette will purchase cotton for the firm of Hill, DeJarnette & Co., this season.

Mr. S. J. Brandon, an enterprising young merchant of this place, has returned home after a month's absence at his former home in Indiana.

Mrs. J. D. Myers, nee Cameron, after a protracted visit to Louisville, and other Northern cities, is visiting Mr. T. S. Hefner, recently of San Antonio, visiting friends here.

Misses Sallie Neal and Fannie Jones, two of Henderson's most attractive daughters, left recently to attend Miss Baldwin's school in Staunton, Va.

Miss Eleanor Burnett, the accomplished daughter of our efficient postmaster, left last week for Nashville, Tenn., where she will attend Dr.

Ward's seminary during the coming session.

E. J. Bateman, W. M. Hall and W.

L. McMurry, a trio of jovial and popular representatives of our town, spent last week in the Island city.

Mr. H. L. Stone and lady, after a few months' sojourn among us, have returned to their home in Colorado

City.

Dr. J. F. Witherspoon has returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Corsicana.

Mr. John E. Jones, Sen., has returned from Hot Springs much improved in health.

MARSHALL.

A. L. Van Hook, wife and child have returned from quite